

TORONTO FILM SCHOOL

GRADUATION 2024

Graduation Ceremony
November 15, 2024

Toronto Film School

TODAY'S CEREMONY

TODAY'S CEREMONY

The ceremony is expected to last approximately 2 hours. We kindly ask that you stay in your seat for the duration of the ceremony, silence phones, and keep noise to a minimum.

Each graduate will be called up on stage to be recognized and have a picture taken. Each graduate is expected to return to their seat after crossing the stage.

Following the ceremony there will be a light reception, where you will have the opportunity to socialize with your fellow graduates, faculty, family members and friends. Professional photos taken during the ceremony will be shared with you at a later date.
The platform party will also be available for photos with family following the ceremony.

Please remember to celebrate this special day with us on social media by using the hashtag #TFSGrad24.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The wearing of academic regalia is a tradition that has persisted from the Middle Ages, derived from the monasteries and wearing of clerical robes, and continued in a new way as universities and colleges were founded.

For the mortarboard, the tassel is worn to left until graduation and is moved to the right during the ceremony. For photographs, the tassel should be worn on the right. Graduates are to wear the appropriate gown and hood for the degree or diploma being conferred at the convocation ceremony.

KEYNOTE ADDRESS

TORONTO • FILM • SCHOOL

Karen Robinson is an award-winning performer whose many accolades over her illustrious, 30+ year career on screen and stage include a Screen Actors Guild (SAG) Award, an NAACP Award, and a Canadian Screen Award (CSA), plus several CSA nominations. Best known for her regular role as 'Ronnie' in Schitt's Creek, which garnered her a 2021 SAG Award, Robinson's other career highlights include her series regular role on Pretty Hard Cases (CBC), David E. Kelley's The Calling (Peacock), and most recently her series regular role on Law & Order Toronto: Criminal Intent. Her ongoing contributions to film and television continue to resonate with audiences around the world and have made her an indispensable force in the industry.

PRESIDENT'S AWARD FOR TEACHING EXCELLENCE

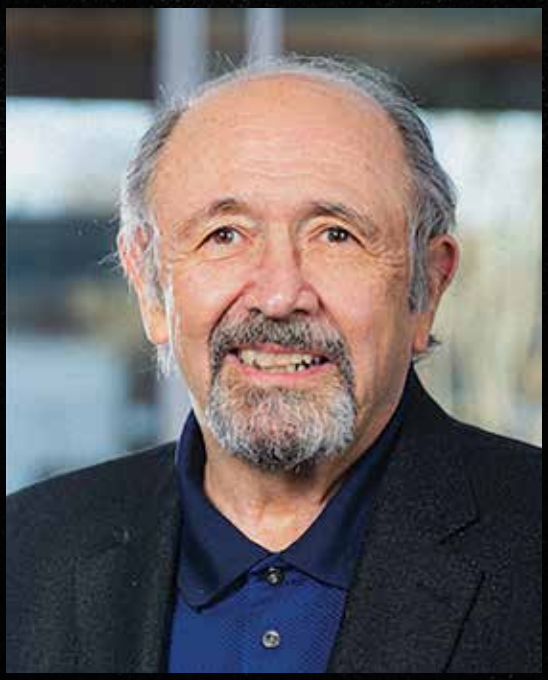

BRUNO S. LYRA

Bruno S. Lyra worked as a corporate tax lawyer until mid-2016, becoming the youngest partner in his firm's 70-year history. During this period, he gained significant expertise in handling high-profile international events like the FIFA World Cup and the Olympic Games, as well as in the broader entertainment industry, representing major global broadcasters, streaming services, and content providers. However, in 2017, Bruno decided to walk away from his legal career to pursue his lifelong passion for film.

Since making the switch, Lyra has devoted his time to three activities: a) he teaches at Toronto Film School and Yorkville University, in addition to lecturing at other institutions (recent engagements include serving as speaker for Mensa); b) he produces (credits include the award-winning feature THE SOUNDING, which sold to HBO in 17 territories) and consults for a variety of productions in both traditional and new media; and c) he's a screenwriter (highlights include a deal with Blue Ant Media for a hour-long drama he created, feature film scripts selected for development financing by Telefilm, in addition to a deal on his bilingual hour-long drama The International School).

Honorees
Rosanna Saracino (Acting for Film, TV and the Theatre)
Blain Watters (Writing for Film and TV)

PROGRAM AWARDS

BEST ACTOR AND ACTRESS AWARD

Voted on by faculty, the Best Actor and Actress Awards are presented to the students who have demonstrated the greatest commitment and best performance skills – both in their studies and in their extra-curricular projects. The two recipients performed truthfully and to the highest of standards during studio work, on film sets, and in final showcases.

SPONSOR - Jolt 390 Photography
Best Actor Award Recipient - Grant Moore
Best Actress Award Recipient - Emma Logan

FILM PRODUCTION CREATIVE TRAILBLAZER AWARD

The Film Production Creative Trailblazer Award honours a visionary film student who pushes the boundaries of storytelling technique in production and/or post-production. It celebrates a student who boldly explores new ideas, inspires others with their innovative approach, and demonstrates exceptional creativity and technical prowess.

SPONSOR – Canada Film Equipment
Award Recipient – Mauricio Tamez Rodriguez

VIDEO PRODUCTION ONLINE AWARD FOR TECHNICAL EXCELLENCE

The Award for Technical Excellence celebrates a TFSO Video Production student who has demonstrated exceptional technical expertise in the areas of cinematography, editing, sound design, and/or visual effects. The recipient's ability to seamlessly blend creative vision with technical precision sets them apart as a true expert in their craft.

SPONSOR – Vistek
Award Recipient – Sebastian Ramirez Cruz

AWARD FOR ACHIEVEMENT IN WRITING

The Award for Achievement in Writing is bestowed upon a Writing for Film & Television student who excelled academically throughout the program. The recipient is someone who collaborated with their peers, showcased their creativity, and demonstrated exceptional technical understanding of the craft of writing.

Award Recipient - Olivia-Autumn Rennie
Award Recipient -Tulsa Williams

DESIGNING FOR FASHION MOST CREATIVE COLLECTION AWARD

The Award for Most Creative Collection is presented to the Designing for Fashion student whose collection upholds the high standards set by TFSO, while demonstrating the creativity and execution demanded by the fashion industry. The recipient is selected by faculty who were directly involved in the collection's creation, development and execution.

Award Recipient – Yasmany Hechavarria Almeida

GRAPHIC DESIGN – CREATIVITY IN DESIGN AWARD

The Creativity in Design Award is awarded to a creative thinker who consistently pushed themselves above and beyond the requirements of a student during their time at TFS/TFSO: creating imaginative solutions through representational storytelling and an authentic process rooted in passion and dedication to the craft of graphic design.

SPONSOR – Adobe
Award Recipient - Stephanie Amaya
Award Recipient - Esther Kestle

VIDEO GAME DESIGN & ANIMATION – CREATIVE ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

The Creative Achievement Award is presented to the Video Game Design & Animation students who excelled in their Capstone projects, while also achieving the best academic performance in their class.

SPONSOR – Ubisoft
Award Recipient – Austin Check

BEST VIDEO GAME DEVELOPER

The recipient of the Best Video Game Developer Award is given to the Video Game Design & Development student who had the best technical capstone project, as well as a high Cumulative Grade Point Average in their class.

SPONSOR – Ubisoft
Award Recipient – Matyas Dudas

SCOTT MCSKIMMING AWARD

This award celebrates the legacy of the late Scott McSkimming, a beloved former member of the TFS faculty who was known for his warmth, kindness and professionalism, both inside and outside the classroom. Scott was a role model who brought people together, who was always keen to lend a helping hand, and who was renowned for his passion for movies and movie history – all character traits reflected in the recipient of this award.

SPONSOR – The McSkimming Family
Award Recipient – Xanthe Van der Gulik

ONLINE STUDENT GRADUATION SPEAKER

Olivia-Autumn Rennie

Writing for Film & Television Associate

Creating under the pseudonym 'Autumn Sky,' Olivia-Autumn Rennie (she/her) is a graduate of Toronto Film School's online Writing for Film & Television Associate Program, and a current student in TFS's Video Production and Yorkville University's Bachelor of Creative Arts programs. She is also a 4th year MD-PhD student at the University of Toronto, an independent filmmaker, and the Artistic Director of her Toronto-based production company, Exuvium Productions. As a filmmaker, medical researcher, and Emergency physician-in-training, Autumn works to leverage the power of screen-based media to raise awareness about critical issues in medicine and society. Her PhD is a 'research-creation' project, producing films that challenge ideas surrounding disease and disability, and pioneering a radically new 'collaborative filmmaking' methodology that enables patients to become key players in the filmmaking process themselves. Autumn's work also moves beyond traditional documentary modes of filmmaking in medicine, to play in the narrative space – specifically within the horror genre. With an educational background originally in neuroscience, she is particularly interested in exploring the lived experience of individuals with neurological and/or psychological diseases, disorders, or injuries.

ON-CAMPUS STUDENT GRADUATION SPEAKER

Natasha Bartholomew

Acting for Film, TV and the Theatre

Natasha Bartholomew is a 28-year-old Acting for Film, TV & Theatre graduate from Barrie, Ontario. She began her acting career at age 10, signing with a Toronto-based agency, but soon stepped away to focus on her education. After completing both a university degree and a post-graduate certificate, Natasha worked as a Community Support Worker and Addictions Treatment Professional for four years.

In January 2023, she decided to expand her skills and enrolled at Toronto Film School (TFS), where she graduated with Distinction, earning a 4.25 CGPA. During her time at TFS, she contributed to various student and official school projects, showcasing her acting skills on screen and voiceover abilities behind the scenes. This past March, Natasha made her debut theatre performance in TFS's production of Departures and Arrivals, directed by Johnathan Whittaker.

Natasha's special skills include impressions and accents, comedy, dance, singing, and diverse athletic training. Since graduating, she has remained active within the TFS community and industry, volunteering in various capacities. She also serves as a teaching assistant at a local acting studio, where she continues to develop her craft. Most notably, Natasha is thrilled to announce her recent signing with agent Jennifer Fry from Star Talent.
